About Us

VVR is the vision conceptualized by top most bureaucrats and educationalist of premier education institutes of the country. The institute came into inception to work as an associate of Institute of Mathematical Sciences (IMS). In a short span of its life, the untiring efforts of team VVR has brought glory and touched the lives of aspiring students who were able to make their dreams come true. As an associate of IMS, VVR has been working in shadows to prove a fundamental role in churning out bureaucrats with top ranks.

The pioneering educationalists and sharp brains of team VVR are committed towards superior quality and result oriented strategies to make a way up towards the foremost jobs of the nation. The driving force behind this educational institution lies in the basic concept of true and honest hard work to bring a real revolution in the trends of coaching domains.

Our years of sheer hard work, a think-tank of vast experience, a country-wide knowledge network of eminent educationalists, unending story of selections in Civil services and state services Exams, a gigantic annual base of students and above all, the trust of thousands of aspirants have together made our strength for focused and quality exam preparation.

From the Director's Desk

The UPSC Civil Services Examination is feared by many as an invincible dragon, but yes even the most daunting challenges can be defeated. What is required is Self-belief and proper guidance. While the former is dependent on a number of internal and external factors, the latter is purely external, and this is where we excel. The credentials of the great Arjuna were beyond doubt, but even he required Lord Krishna to act as a friend, philosopher and guide to achieve his true potential.

In essence, the need of a credible and knowledgeable GURU is an imperative and cannot be understated throughout this arduous journey of becoming a Civil Servant.

We, as a group of highly committed individuals take a lot of pride in assisting bright young aspirants in achieving their dream. We provide an able platform to guide students in the best possible way at every point in their preparation. Unlike various other institutes we do not promise a selection and milk our students for a false hope. But yes, what we promise is a sincere and dedicated effort by every member of our team. We promise that we understand the requirements of this exam and hence will give students what is relevant for the exam. We promise an environment that is extremely conducive to take on the rigours of this exam and make this painful process a one to enjoy and cherish. The outcome is an experience for the students that will certainly exceed their expectations.

Hence, we equip our students with all the essentials in their repertoire to believe that they are ready for the exam. Our teaching methodology thus hinges on instilling the self belief in our students which is utmost important in defeating the dragon and eventually succeeding in the exam.

– K. VENKANNA
(DIRECTOR IMS & VVR)
